What did we learn?

-Student stakeholders are satisfied with the culture at their school and had very positive perceptions to report

-Families shared that the staff are effective communicators, and that they feel comfortable with addressing concerns.

-Staff responses were positive stating they are supported in their role at North Forestville E.S.

-Staff feels they would benefit from higher parent engagement.

-Great collaborations have been established through the Steering Community

-Providing support to the school in real time and through tangible items has been accessible as well.
