

Snap-n-Send

Brainfuse Snap-and-Send allows you to easily share your handwritten work, worksheets, or other physical material with your tutor during a live tutoring session. To use the feature, follow the steps below.

NOTE: If you are a first-time user, be sure to complete the first-time user steps. These first-time user steps are required before you can use Brainfuse Snap-and-Send.

Using Snap-n-Send

1. Enter your live tutoring session at the scheduled start time.
2. Once you are present in your live tutoring session, open the Brainfuse App on your phone or tablet.
3. Within the Brainfuse app, select Snap-and-Send.
4. Select the paper clip icon to choose a file. You can take a picture or upload a previous
5. Confirm the picture or file you want to send to your tutor. Once confirmed, the image will automatically load to your live tutoring session.

First Time Users

1. Select the Camera icon during your live tutoring session
2. Select Download the App to view details regarding the Brainfuse App in the Apple App and Google Play stores.
3. Follow the directions to download the Brainfuse App to your phone or tablet. Once installed, scan the QR code displayed to log in to your Brainfuse account.
4. Once logged in with the QR code or Verification ID, your account will remain logged in.

