BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Rights and Responsibilities of Parents

The Board of Education desires to assure that public school children will be able to obtain the maximum educational benefits as mandated by law. In this connection, parents have certain rights and the Board expects parents to fulfill their responsibilities.

The Board of Education reaffirms and endorses its stated policies concerning parents' rights and responsibilities, and the Superintendent will provide for the inclusion of the pertinent policies in the annual report, in other publications, and electronically.
