BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY

PERSONNEL

Credit References of Personnel

The Board of Education recognizes that with an increasing number of employees in all areas there will be a growth in the number of requests for credit references. It should be understood by the employees of the Board that such information will be given only on written request by the agency or employee.

It should be further understood that it is the express feeling of the Board that its employees have a definite responsibility to conduct their financial affairs in such a manner, that the highest degree of integrity and trustworthiness is maintained in all relationships with outside agencies.
